

Greenhill Newsletter

The natural world is looking especially beautiful at this time of year with everything bursting into life and colour. Religion talks of the way God is represented in this beauty. Why don't you capture a picture of this. You could draw it, paint it or take a photograph.

Why don't you try...

Greenhill News

We are now in our final term and there are lots of exciting things planned to finish the year.

EYFS-have exciting transitions coming up to their new classes!

Year1-showcasing their phonics knowledge!

Year2-are taking part in Oldham's Literacy festival!

Year3-are taking part in a singing challenge with other Oldham Schools!

Year4- are taking part in the music festival!

Year5-are completing their learning about Shakespeare!

Year6-have their end of year trip to come!

Hub-are going to enjoy lots of science experiments!

I started this terms assembly theme by looking at wellbeing and how we can take care of our own wellbeing by 5 simple things: connect - talking to others; be active - be physically fit; take notice- be aware of your surroundings through mindfulness; keep learning - take up a new hobby; Give- help others.
