

Be a Performer

Creative

That was amazing! I can't wait to read the book now.

Please forgive me. I'm so sorry!

Communicator

Performing a story or scene helps us to understand characters thoughts, actions and feelings. This helps us to make our writing more descriptive and interesting to read.

World Book Day – Bringing Books to Life Workshop. We used drama to bring the book Coraline by Neil Gaiman to life. The children LOVED this.

I usually feel nervous before a performance but I use mindfulness techniques and I know I will feel great afterwards.

Confident

There are many opportunities to be a performer at Greenhill – Xmas productions, music festivals, end of year productions. Every term we get the chance to show the good work we have been doing in front of the school and parents.
