

God created man in his own image so to enslave a fellow human being is wrong and a sin against God.	The slave trade is cruel and deprives people of their freedom.
Many slaves are starved and worked until they collapse. Their working conditions are terrible. Many slaves would rather die than continue to live their lives as slaves.	The slave trade plays an important part in creating wealth for our country and making Britain great.
It is cheaper to employ someone as a wage earner than a slave.	The African people are not inferior to Europeans and should be treated as equals not slaves.
The slaves are inferior and fit or clever enough for any other work.	If Britain stops trading slaves, our enemies the French, will take over and they will profit from the slave trade.
The slave trade is not profitable for Britain. We lose too much money because slaves die and it is very expensive to transport them.	We have enough problems of our own in England, people are living in poverty. We should look after them before we worry about freeing slaves.
Slave rebellions will become worse if we don't listen to the slaves.	Slave rebellions show us that black people can't be trusted. They are dangerous and must be kept under control.
