

Autumn Poem

Autumn autumn

What do I see?

Shiny, red conkers on the floor

Large, crisp leaves falling to the ground

Soft, bushy squirrels running on a tree in front of me

Autumn autumn

What do I hear?

Rustling, crunchy leaves swirling to the floor

Howling, noisy wind all around

Crunching, cracking sticks under my feet in my ear

Autumn autumn

What do I feel/touch?

Prickly, spiky conker shells squished under my feet

Smooth, hard nuts on the floor

Dry, crinkly leaves under the trees love so much

Autumn autumn

What do I taste?

Fruity, zingy blackberries on the bush

Warm, sweet hot chocolate in my house

Scrummy, tangy apples on a tree

Monday 23rd November 2020      Name _____

LO To Infer

Tuesday 24th November 2020

Name _____

Wednesday 25th November 2020

LO To write sentences using our senses G

See

Touch

Smell

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Autumn Autumn What do I see?

crunchy

golden leaves shiny

brown

conkers

cuddly

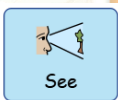

furry

animals

Thursday 26th November 2020 Name _____

LO To write a poem

---

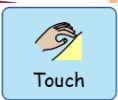

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---