

W/C 25th January 2021

LO: To explore the life cycle of a butterfly

--

--

--

--

--

--

--

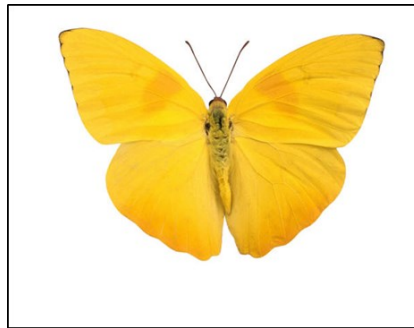

--

The butterfly lays eggs on leaves.

The butterfly emerges from the chrysalis and flies off to find flowers to feed from.

The body of the butterfly develops inside this.

The egg hatches into a caterpillar, which eats leaves, and grows until it is ready to turn into a chrysalis.

Chrysalis

Caterpillar

Eggs

Butterfly